

Exeter Flying Post

June 21 1798

WHITEWORKS TIN MINE.

Tin Mines, Devon: - By virtue of a decree of the Right Worshipful the Vice Warden of the Stannaries of Devon, on Monday, the 6th June next, at the Inn of Two Bridges, on the Forest of Dartmoor, at two o' Clock in the afternoon will be sold by public auction, One Eight Part or Share of a valuable TIN MINE called WHITEWORKS, situate near Two Bridges, on the said Forest of Dartmoor.

For particulars apply to Mr. Kendall, Attorney, Exeter, to the Captain, Joseph Stephens, on the mine; to Mr. Robert Ruby, St. Cleere, near Liskeard, or to Mr. John Carne, at St. Austell, in Cornwall.

Extracted from the West Country Studies Library. Exeter.