

Derby Mercury

24th. January 1811.

Page 2 Col. 3

Sale of an estate at Whittington: house, dovecote, and circa 26 acres, owned and occupied by Richard Gillet, Esq., 4 cottages near Chesterfield, lands and woods, a moiety of the manor (with coal and ironstone), and various coal rights under House Park Wood, half of Grass Croft Farm, occupied by John Dixon, Esq., 70 acres with coal and ironstone, pew, etc. in the Church. George Glossop of Whittington will show.