

The Craven Herald.

Saturday January 12th 1878.

Page 3 Cols. 1 - 2.

Ingleton Colliery Sick Club

The members of this club hold their annual dinner on Saturday evening, the 5th instant, at the Bridge Inn. Although the weather was anything but favourable, the members mustered in strong force. It is considered the "stir of stirs" in the neighbourhood. About 100 members sat down to the meal. Toasts included one "Success to the Ingleton Collieries and Mr Bracewell". Mr Bracewell said to be employing over 130 men. Mr Danson was the Colliery Manager.

The following is the Secretary's report for the year 1877: Members contributions £58.00, fines 1s 6d, rules 4s 11d, Total £58 6s 5d. Members sick pay £43 13s, stationary and print 3s, Secretary's salary 10s, balance £13 0s 5d, Total £58 6s 5d.

The party broke up a little before 12 noon.