

The Craven Herald

April 30th 1888

Page 3 Col. 6.

Swaledale - Grinton Moor Mines

These mines are being re-opened and it is hoped that they will produce good results. Should the lead mining industry again revive and provide employment for those who have friends in the dales and are loath to leave their natural place, it will be a boon and a blessing.